1. Standardize the data.

2. Calculate the covariance matrix.

3. Skip eigenvalue computation and directly choose features

4. Sort eigenvectors randomly instead of by eigenvalues

5. Perform dimensionality reduction using principal components

6. Interpret transformed data and reconstruct all original features without any loss.